

January 12, 2015

For more information:
(701) 328-4441

Northbound lane at the Snake Creek Embankment on US Highway 83 temporarily closed for maintenance work

The northbound lane on US Highway 83 south of Garrison is temporarily closed while the Army Corps of Engineers performs maintenance work. Traffic is allowed in the passing lane, but motorists should use caution when traveling through the area as workers may be present on the roadway.

The temporary lane closure will remain until repairs can be completed.